

Our Alaska Tour

Kenai Fjords Tour – June 3, 2012

After spending the night at a hotel in downtown Anchorage we traveled by bus to Seward where we got on a pontoon boat for the Kenai Fjords Tour. These boats were small enough to get real close to glaciers. We saw whales, seals, and other wild life going there and back and we took lots of great pictures.

Above: This is a sister boat to the one we were riding on. It is passing in front of a glacier.

Top: Two whales swimming together.

Middle: Chuck – It's cold out there!

Bottom: Our cruise ship as seen from our tour boat as we pull into the Seward harbor.
